Comments

History: LA initiated the organization in 1937 for “Smooth Dancing”

Women were first invited to join in 1939

Club disbanded in October 1942 because of World War II

Club restarted after the war, and LA incorporated in November 1947

In 1949 San Diego affiliated, followed by Golden Gate

The Oakland Chapter hosted the Convention in 1957, '67, '73

It seems the San Jose Chapter formed in November 1972 but also around 1953. They hosted Convention in 1955.

The Rainbow Chapter of Fresno affiliated in May 1952, and disbanded in 1975

The Palomar Chapter formed on September 27, 1953

A Santa Monica Chapter formed, but disbanded, with most members joining the Los Angeles Chapter

Long Beach started in 1957, but disbanded in 1990

In October 1960, San Fernando Valley formed and affiliated with NSD in 1961

The Bakersfield Chapter began in March 1964

The Visalia Chapter began in 1958 and disbanded a few years later

The Visalia Chapter restarted in 1975

The High Tides (Central Coast) Chapter began in 1978, disbanded in 2004

The Fresno Chapter restarted in 1985

Interesting “Firsts”

The Golden Gate Chapter hosted the first State Convention in 1951

Dance Whispers published its first issue in February, 1950

First yearbook was for 1952-53, done by the Rainbow Chapter in Fresno

The Oakland Chapter held the first Crown Circle gathering in 1961

Gavel Club began at the 1974 Convention
